January 2006

In compliance with KRS 164.250, I am pleased to provide you with the 2005-2006 Fact Booklet, a compendium of current facts about the people and programs at the University of Kentucky. Our stakeholders and the general public will find many items of interest in this booklet, including statistics on enrollments, retention, research expenditures, and faculty salaries. A summary of the 2005-2006 Operating Budget is also presented.

Many of the performance indicators compiled in this booklet will be used to judge our effectiveness in the years ahead. Toward that end, we have added several performance indicators and statistics to this year's booklet, including undergraduate enrollments by residency status and the ACT scores of entering first-year students.

Last month, the Board of Trustees approved a bold new framework designed to propel UK into the ranks of world-class research institutions. The Top 20 Business Plan was initiated in an effort to accomplish the mandates contained in the Kentucky Postsecondary Education Improvement Act of 1997. This landmark legislation established a Compact between the people of Kentucky and this institution. In return for its investments in UK, Kentuckians would begin to reap the benefits of a premier public research university, including a better educated population, improved economy, healthier children, and stronger communities.

A possible scenario for implementation of the Plan includes the General Assembly increasing the University's state appropriations by $18 million annually (5.8 percent) and funding more research space, including the completion of the Biological / Pharmaceutical Complex Phase II project in the next biennium. To improve the lives of Kentuckians, UK will invest these funds as well as tuition and fee income and funds derived from internal reallocation in six strategic areas:

- Undergraduate Education
- Student Aid
- Academic Support
- Faculty
- Support Services
- Facilities

The Commonwealth's investment in its flagship institution must produce tangible benefits for the people who live, work, and raise families in Kentucky. The UK community will honor the Top 20 Compact by improving communities across Kentucky. Our greatness as a Top 20 university will be judged largely by our ability to harness our formidable intellectual resources in pursuit of solutions to Kentucky's pressing social, economic, and health-related problems.

Sincerely,

Lee T. Todd, Jr.
President

VISION

The University of Kentucky will be one of the nation's 20 best public research universities, an institution recognized world-wide for excellence in teaching, research, and service and a catalyst for intellectual, social, cultural, and economic development.

MISSION

The University of Kentucky is a public, research-extensive, land grant university dedicated to enriching people's lives through excellence in teaching, research, and service.

The University of Kentucky:

- Facilitates learning, informed by scholarship and research.
- Expands knowledge through research, scholarship and creative activity.
- Serves a global community by disseminating, sharing and applying knowledge.

The University, as the flagship institution, plays a critical leadership role for the Commonwealth by promoting human and economic development that improves lives within Kentucky's borders and beyond. The University models a diverse community characterized by fairness and social justice.

-- Adopted by the Board of Trustees, April 1, 2003

The Library's collections also include over 300 networked electronic resources and nearly 10,000 electronic journals accessible in the main and branch libraries and to faculty and students off campus via a proxy server. In addition, the collections include: 257,418 maps; over 200 current state, national and international newspapers; 6,200 Oral History program interviews; the University Archives and Records Program; the Wendell H. Ford Public Policy Research Center; Audio-Visual Archives; Bert T. Combs Appalachian Collection; the Public Policy Archives; the Rare Book Collection which includes the W. Hugh Peal Collection of 19th century English and related literature; and the Preservation Reformatting Center. The Center for Digital Programs creates digital content for the Kentuckiana Digital Library including electronic texts, digitized photographs, images and archival finding aids. The Library is a regional depository for U.S. government publications and is also a depository for European Union and Canadian publications, British Parliamentary Papers, Kentucky government publications, and technical reports from federal agencies, all selectively collected.
